Quality of teaching was consistently high across divisions, while opportunities to work collaboratively and amount of faculty involvement varied.

59%
Campus-wide, 3 in 5 students say their program's core course requirements provided adequate preparation for later courses.

62%
About 3 in 5 students reported feeling included by the faculty in their program.

68%
2 in 3 students reported feeling included by their peers in their program.

Most Common Types of Financial Support in the 2020-2021 Academic Year

- Teaching Assistantships (TA) 66%
- Fellowships/Scholarships 57%
- Graduate Student Researchers (GSR) 44%

Moved in 2021?
Students with TAships were more likely to move due to financial hardship than were students who were not supported by TAships.

Campus Services:

About 3 in 4 (74%) domestic students knew where to get help on campus for a counseling, psychological, or other mental health need.

63% of international students knew where to get help on campus for this.